

Technical Specification

Eco105 Econologic Shower Head

Eco105 fixed shower head is one of a series of ecologic shower products offered by Econologic Systems – a leading manufacturer specializing in ecologic technologies with an emphasis on economic viability.

As part of an entire product line, Eco105 possesses characteristics aimed at the protection of the environment – saving water and energy. While achieving its environmental goal, Eco105 provides an invigorating shower experience as well as providing a long lasting, maintenance-free service.

Preserves water resources, protects the environment and saves money!

Characteristics:

- Less than 2 gallons per minute at an average pressure of 60 PSI.
- Provides an energetic shower experience whilst saving as much as 70% in water and energy consumption
- Unique water spray mechanism based on a turbulence cell for air suction and water pressurization
- Enhanced water pressure
- Solid brass construction from precision machined parts without any castings - no plastic parts
- Quality chrome plated
- Anti-calcification
- Prevents spread of Legionnaires' and other bacterial diseases
- Self cleaning
- Autoclavable
- Maintenance-free due to complete water drainage
- Installation on ceiling or wall
- Dimensions: 2.6" long, 1.3" diameter
- Easily fitted on the current standard 1/2" thread pipe
- Specially designed key as the ultimate protection mechanism against theft and vandalism
- Durable and long lasting
- 6 year warranty

